Teacher Notes

Objective

Students will be able to use functional sentence frames to express opinions, agree, disagree, ask for clarification, and summarize key points in academic discussions.

Suggested Use

Introduce 2-3 frames at a time. Model their use with a partner or whole class. Practice in pairs or small groups using the dialogue strips and speaking prompts. Encourage students to use the frames during regular classroom discussions across subjects. The worksheets can be used for independent practice or assessment.

Materials Needed

- Whiteboard or chart paper
- Markers
- Printed sentence frames (laminated for durability)
- Printed dialogue strips
- Printed speaking prompt cards
- Worksheets
- A relevant text, image, or topic for discussion (e.g., a short story, a science concept, a current event suitable for grade level)

Differentiation Tips

For struggling learners: Provide visual cues for each frame. Allow students to use sentence starters and fill in single words. Pair them with a more proficient peer. Practice choral repetition of frames.

For advanced learners: Encourage them to combine frames or extend their responses with more complex reasoning. Ask them to lead small group discussions or create their own discussion questions using the frames.
