Teacher Notes

Objective

Students will be able to use simple sentence frames to ask for help in common classroom situations, fostering independence and communication skills.

Suggested Use

Introduce frames one at a time with visual aids and gestures. Practice with 'choral repetition' and 'turn and talk' activities. Use dialogue strips for role-playing. Integrate speaking prompts into daily routines for real-time practice. Worksheets can be used for independent practice or assessment.

Materials Needed

- Sentence frame flashcards (large print)
- Speaking prompt cards (with visuals)
- Dialogue strips
- Worksheets
- Realia (e.g., a difficult puzzle, a book on a high shelf, art supplies)

Differentiation Tips

Support: Pair students with a more proficient peer, provide sentence starters with visual cues, model extensively, use hand-over-hand for writing practice.

Challenge: Encourage students to add one more detail (e.g., 'Help me with the red crayon.'), ask 'Why do you need help?' and guide them to simple answers.
