Teacher Notes

Objective

Students will be able to communicate about their reading experiences, book reports, and reading log progress using compound sentence frames in English and Spanish.

Suggested Use

Introduce frames one by one, modeling pronunciation and meaning. Practice in pairs or small groups using dialogue strips and speaking prompts. Use worksheets for independent practice or assessment. Encourage students to use the frames during class discussions about books and reading logs.

Materials Needed

- Books for students to read
- Reading logs
- Pencils/pens
- Printed speaking prompt cards
- Printed worksheets
- Whiteboard or projector for modeling

Differentiation Tips

Support: Provide a word bank for writing practice, allow students to draw pictures instead of writing for some responses, pre-teach key vocabulary, partner students with stronger English speakers.

Challenge: Encourage students to expand on their sentences with more details, ask follow-up questions during dialogues, have students write a short paragraph using 2-3 frames, present their book report to a small group.
