Teacher Notes

Objective

Students will be able to identify, define, and use key vocabulary related to career exploration and essential life skills, enhancing their understanding of personal development and future planning.

Suggested Use

Introduce vocabulary using flashcards and visuals. Read the mini-book aloud, pausing to discuss vocabulary in context. Use matching and tracing worksheets for reinforcement. The coloring worksheet can serve as a creative assessment. Encourage students to use the words in sentences and discuss how these skills apply to their daily lives and future aspirations.

Materials Needed

- Printed vocabulary cards (with English, Spanish, and image prompts)
- Mini-book copies for each student or one large copy for shared reading
- Worksheet copies (matching, tracing, coloring)
- Pencils, crayons/colored pencils
- Whiteboard or projector for introducing new words

Differentiation Tips

For struggling learners: Provide sentence starters for discussions. Allow students to use bilingual dictionaries. Pair them with a stronger English speaker for activities. Focus on a smaller set of vocabulary words if needed.

For advanced learners: Encourage them to write short paragraphs or journal entries using the vocabulary. Have them research specific careers and identify which life skills are most important for those roles. Ask them to create their own definitions or example sentences.
